NEWPORT NEWS, VIRGINIA

Foreword

The theme of this book is communication. The scroll of the ancient scribe, the printing press, the newsboy crying his wares on the street, are early symbols of a rapidly changing field of communication.

Since the days of the ancient Chinese, who are reported to have discovered the art of printing, to Gutenberg who developed it, to American ingenuity which utilized it, is but a moment, relatively speaking, in this change.

What accomplishments lie ahead we do not know. With the seemingly infinite possibilities of radio only partly realized; with television, with the radio or "facsimile" newspaper rapidly being developed and now in use to some extent, it is difficult even to guess as to what the future holds.

No matter what form it may take in the near future, we hope that communication of news and ideas and opinions will never be prohibited; that the right of free speech will never be taken away—for that way lies dictatorship.

And last, we hope that the news (be it published, radio broadcast, told over the back-fence, or shouted from the house top) of the records of this February 1939 graduating class be good news to our parents, our friends, and our teachers.

"ONLY ONE"

There are many, many houses in the world but to each of us there is only one home. There are many, many schools in the world but to each of you there is only one school. There are many, many persons of the opposite sex in the world but one day you will find, I hope, that there is only one for you.

These are fundamental loyalties of life and they arise from the fact that these agencies have properly filled fundamental needs. The school career which you are now closing has, I trust, exhibited a fulfillment of the fundamental obligations a school has toward its members. If you are leaving with a sense of satisfaction in your career here, with a feeling of comfort as you look back upon your school associations and with a feeling of confidence in what it has given you, then we have both succeeded. If there is frustration or a feeling of having missed something, and a lack of certainty as to just what you are carrying away with you, then someone has failed. Go forward on this day with a determination to cultivate and enhance that which you have received and to seek anew that which you do not now have. Herein will lie success and satisfaction in life.

*The test of a man is the fight he makes,
The grit that he daily shows,
The way he stands on his feet and takes
Fate's numerous bumps and blows.
A coward can smile when there's naught to fear,
When nothing his progress bars,
But it takes a man to stand up and cheer
While some other fellow stars.
It isn't the victory after all,
But the fight that a brother makes;
The man who, driven against the wall,
Still stands up erect and takes the blows of Fate with his head held high,
Bleeding, and bruised, and pale
Is the man who'll win in the end and by
For he isn't afraid to fail.*

DEDICATION

The staff of the February 1939 Annual dedicates this book to Miles L. Thompson, for many years instructor in printing at Newport News high school.

His help to disciples of Gutenberg or Horace Greeley is well known. Workers on the Beacon newspaper and annual are grateful for his advice and cooperation. His service to the school in its other multitudinous printing jobs is great.

Advisers to activities needing programs, tickets, placards, well know his contribution. Indeed, it would be difficult to mention any phase of our school life in which he does not have a part.

Printing has made an invaluable contribution to the world. This printer has made a valuable contribution to our school life. We value it highly.

Senior Class Song

We won't forget dear Newport Hi
In all the years to come
For all the fun and joy we've had
We're sorry our work is done.

To dear old Newport Hi we give,
A toast of love and so
We sing this song to say good-bye
Though it breaks our hearts to go.

Activities

Activities

1. Photo Club—Look at the Birdie; 2. Stage Electricians—Working for a change, isn't that news?
3. Orchestra—Some are going to toot their own horns; 4. Electricity Class—It's shocking; 5. Clothing Class—Maybe they'll make us some, too! 6. Library Assistants—What they know will fill a book!

Activities

1. Cheerleaders—"All together," now "Rah, Newport!" 2. Girl's Athletic Club—Rolling their own. 3. Varsity Squad—We're proud of them. 4. Band—Don't they look spiffy? 5. Gym Class—Taking their beauty treatment. 6. Jr. Varsity Squad—Jay Vees in all their glory.

Activities

1. Senior Home Economics Club—They'll make some men good wives—we bet! 2. Quill and Scroll—Aren't they wide awake? 3. Girls' Junior Chorus—All together, now sing! 4. Mixed Chorus—Real harmony here. 5. National Honor Society—Aren't they smart?

Activities

1. Spanish Club—Habla Espanol? Si. 2. Jr. Red Cross—A good cause. 3. Varsity Club—The honored and elect. 4. Latin Club—“Amo, Amas, Amat.” 5. Girl Reserves—We know some boys who would like to call on them. Or should we say, call out the reserves?

Activities

1. Stamp and Coin Club—That's their hobby. 2. Speech Club—"Speak the Speech, we pray you." 3. National Thespians—Maybe there'll be a Scarlett O'Hara among them. 4. Honor Council—You better be good! 5. Beacon Annual Staff—Don't they look weary?

Activities

1. Student Council—They govern us. 2. Infirmary Assistants — What! no aspirin? 3. Boys' Jr. Chorus—Real harmony here, too. 4. Office Staff—The work they do turn out. 5. Home Ec. Class—Won't they make good wives? 6. Science Club—Einstiens in the making.

Activities

1. Printing Class—Busy on the Beacon. 2. Shop Class—Real handy men. 3. Senior Literary Club—Don't they look literary? 4. Physics Class—They make the world go round. 5. Jr. Literary Club—Planning a program. 6. Biology Class—"Bugology."

Mayor Farmer Greets Union

John Union, former student of the Newport News high school returned Thursday from Europe where he helped defend the American rights to the Davis Cup.

A very large crowd welcomed him at the boat when he arrived. Also a very fine program was presented by a committee of his old friends. Those on the committee were: Elizabeth Henley, Jeannie Davie, and Vera Townsend. The key to the city was then presented him by Mayor Roy Farmer. Mr. Union stated that he would tour the United States for the ensuing year.

"Flashes of Yesterday" Meets With Success

"Flashes of Yesterday," the stage show seen at the Jefferson Theatre, took the town by storm. It included many spectacular acts. The all-girl chorus performed with the ease and grace of professionals. Many members of this chorus formerly resided in Newport News. Among them were Vivian Jones, Norma Livesay, and Virginia Burleigh. Miss Anne Ruth Dale, famous for her imitations of Minnie Mouse, failed to appear in the show. One of the special numbers was a fan dance on skates by Jean Christian and Bettye Mercer.

Gay Wins Honors

Milliecent Gay, who carried off honors at the Olympic Games held in Paris, was an expert swimmer in her high school days. "In all my coaching experience I have never seen a more graceful swimmer," was the statement Miss Frances Abbott made. Miss Abbott coached at Newport News high school for the past fifteen years.

"Is Dancing Wrong?" Peck's Sermon Topic

"Is Dancing Wrong?" was the topic of the sermon of Rev. Edward Peck at the American church in New York City recently.

In his message he brought out: "This mode of entertainment was carried out by the heathens in their tribal ceremonies; but we are now living in an enlightened age when we should look to something more refined for our recreation."

His choir was composed of Marguerite Williams, Sylvia Arch, Katherine Beaubein, Frank Mailander, Evelyn Morris, and Dorothy Hundley. The organist, Miss Shirley Mae Carter rendered several selections.

It was announced during the service that a special privilege would be afforded to the congregation the following Wednesday night by two returned missionaries, Rachel Divers, and Lois Candler, who will speak on the "Life and Customs of Antarctic Eskimos."

Hospital Gift to City From Noted Doctor

Yesterday the cornerstone was laid for the new Armory hospital, a gift to the city from Dr. O. T. Amory, Jr., famous brain surgeon. Miss Shirley Lee Wood, private secretary to Dr. Amory, announces the following: Surgical staff, Eugene Schwartz, Mason Hudgins, Roy Farmer, and John Henderson.

Edward Williamson, Carolyn Stephenson, James Nelms, Julian Erlach, Britt Keene, make up on the board of trustees. The women in white include Josephine Jones, Lorraine Carnvein, Merrill Schackelford, Cornelia Slotboom, Evelyn Williams, Mildred Sherman, Frances Lenz, and Catherine Satchell.

Frank Lassiter heads the orderlies with Victor Stanaway and Tazewell Whitley, assisting.

Boutchard Gets Lead in "Gone With the Wind"

At last after many years of hard labor Paramount has found the actress to play the part of Scarlet O'Hara in the motion picture version of "Gone With the Wind." They selected the star of radio and screen, Miss Betty Boutchard and opposite her will be the great statesman and diplomat, Mr. Huyke Urrutia, who will play the thrilling part of Rhet Butler. The producers think this show will take the country by storm and that it will be a smash hit.

Advice to the Lovelorn

Dear Mr. Bishop:

Won't you please help a poor little maiden in distress? I have been unfaithful to my loved one. Last night I went out with another and I don't know whether or not to tell the one and only. Please tell me what to do.

Frances Burnett.

Answer—Be honest, be faithful, be kind. Then I'm sure your true love won't mind.

Dear Mr. Bishop:

I am twenty-seven years of age, average looking, but very bashful. My problem concerns a beautiful popular young girl with whom I am very deeply in love. I am afraid to ask her for a date as she will probably laugh at me. How can I overcome this fear?

Frank Lassiter.

Answer—Columbus took a chance and you must take a chance as long as there's a moon up above, 'cause you don't want to make history, you just want to make love.

Dear Mr. Bishop:

After many sleepless nights I have at last decided to put my problem in your hands—here goes. My steady who has been very faithful, kind, and loving has all of a sudden turned his affections elsewhere. I am very broken hearted. Won't you please tell me how to regain his love?

Isabelle Huber.

Answer—Wait and pick a night, a dark and stormy night, take him riding around in the rain.

Dear Mr. Bishop:

I have been reading your column for years and you have helped me with many problems before so won't you please help me again? My trouble is that I think I am terribly in love with two boys, is this possible?

Elizabeth Rayfield.

Answer—Oh darling you can't love but one, you can't love but one and have any fun, O darling you can't love but one.

Dear Mr. Bishop:

My how my heart is torn. I can't live without him. I can't live with him. I can still remember how he proposed to me. He took me in his arms and swore to be true (that dirty rat). He said that he loved me but oh how he lied!

With shattered hopes,

Frances Rice.

Answer—Your case is most hopeless. The only thing I can suggest is to get another man. Remember there are more cat fish in the sea.

Fads and Frills

On a trip to the beach last Sunday the new style bathing suits seem to bid fair to be a sensation. They are made of cellophane of flower or figure designs with skirt effect. The more elaborate designs have a black cape of the same material and the colors are so gay that they make a very inspiring effect.

Several of our citizens have voiced their opinions on this topic. Miss Margaret Carleton, famous dress designer said, "The new bathing suits are both daring and different." Miss Beverly Coleman and Jean Greer, joint owners of the "De-lov-lee Beauty Salon" stated: "The new bathing suits will fit the new type hairdress."

The famous New York model Elizabeth Hollowell, formerly of Newport News told the reporters, "I am very enthusiastic about the new bathing suit modes."

Scientific Exhibition Is Now On Display

An astounding exhibition of the marvels of wireless television was revealed today to our star reporter by Dr. B. Donald Aaron, Television Engineer Expert, and head of the television section of the governmental research laboratories at Washington, D. C. Dr. Aaron exhibited his latest development, the transmitterless television detector in the main hall of the library of congress by showing the results of the latest congressional argument.

Other exhibitors from this laboratory are Dr. Winston Pierce, who displayed a wonderful camera that required no film. Upon the request of Margaret Hattan, our reporter, Dr. Pierce took a color snapshot of her. Results will be seen later.

Proceeding down the aisle, Miss Hattan discovered Dr. Bernard Berman and Dr. David Brenner with a model of their latest death ray projection. This projection on display will kill a fly at twenty paces.

Givens Elected Head Of Old Maid's Circle

The Old Maid's Sewing Circle of this city met this week to elect officers for the following year. The following were installed: President, Josephine Givens; vice-president, Margaret Ennis; secretary, Doris Foster; treasurer, Janie Collie; historian, Josephine Suttle.

The following committees were appointed: Welfare, chairman, Eva Lawson, and Ernestine Fotion; program, Irene Bookbinder, chairman, Edna Rowe, and Charlotte Rosenberg; membership, Norman Chalkey, chairman, and Mildred Spivey.

Local Socialites Make the News

Miss Frances Rice, star reporter of the News Record, covered the political election in Washington.

Miss Marguerite Williams, foreign news correspondent for the Day Light News, has returned home from a four months tour through England and France.

Mrs. Mary Vanderspendmore, formerly Miss Mary Spivey, is giving a dinner party at her palacial residence at 24 Park Avenue, Washington, D. C. It is reputed that Senator Vanderspendmore has just given her as a birthday gift, a four million dollar necklace which he recently purchased from Samuel Burgess, the famous jewel importer. Mr. Burgess has been collecting the stones for the necklace for the past thirty-six years.

James Whitsell has just made his debut in the Metropolitan opera house. He was praised by the critic for giving the finest sousaphone performance ever heard there.

George Ilsh has just returned from a trip abroad after inspecting his foreign factories. Mr. Ilsh is well known as the maker of "Ilsh Foodles" the well known set of paper dolls for both parents and children.

Mrs. I. Gotrocks has just returned to her home in Bull Island after visiting abroad. Mrs. Gotrocks is the former Miss Elnora Ward.

Ira Tilley has been moved to his home in the East End after a month's stay in the hospital. Mr. Tilley has been suffering from a dislocated toenail.

Mrs. Homer Richievich, the former Miss Lelia Byrd, who has been studying the art of hog calling under Madame Alice McGrath in New York, has returned home.

Two former football stars of the Newport News high school were recently signed for the coming season to play professional football for the San Francisco Bears; the positions received were: Center, Fred Albertson, All-American in 1949; Fullback, Ellsworth Roberts, All-American in 1947. The boys left for San Francisco yesterday.

"Keep Kleen Soap Company" Opens New Radio Show

Edward Robeson, president of the "Kleep Kleen Soap Company" announced the following radio program for Wednesday night of each week over the U Hear It system. Radio and newspaper will feature the new advertising. The guest artists will include Carlos Urrutia, famous singer; Annette Peltz, noted metropolitan soprano; and John McMahon, world famous news commentator.

The music will be provided by Charles "Speed" Rayfield and his orchestra. They have as a special feature the "Four City Slickers," and Sam Hopkins with Cecelia Griggs vocalising.

One of the main attractions will be a dramatization of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," directed by Rae Martin and Anne Shrecengost. They received their early training from Miss Dorothy M. Crane of the Newport News high school.

The cast is as follows: Snow White, Roberta Baker; Queen, Ruth Moger; Prince Charming, Billy Sifford; Dopy, Roland Tully; Sleepy, Aubrey Wash; Grumpy, Raymond Shockley; Sneezy, Allen Fife; Bashful, Felix Hoffman; Happy, Bernard Utley; Doc, Walter Wilkins.

The illustrations were cleverly executed by Miss Anne Derby.

New Hit On Broadway Produced By Jones, Inc.

The latest production of the Fred Jones Televised Pictures, Inc. is an amusing attempt to display the family life of the mythical Poocavonocaviers. The leading actors in the drama are as follows: Mama Poocavonocaviers, Virginia Holland, who plays the part as if inspired; Papa Poocavonocaviers, Carlos Urrutia. Mr. Urrutia portrays with realism the battles of the typical Spanish family. Poocavonocaviers Junior, James Goodrich, "What a boy." Sizzy Poocavonocaviers, Clara Schmidt, "What a girl." The play takes place in the Poocavonocaviers home three miles from Madrid and revolves about the fact that Junior has just wrecked the family strato car and Sizzy wants to go to the Danube river for some rolls for supper. In the end, however, everything turns out happily because Junior "borrows" another strato car and Sizzy gets her rolls.

State Selects Star Jury

The jury was selected this morning in the case of the state of Vass-Beryl Oser. He was accused of attempting to sell the horses on the monument in the State Capital grounds in Riet to the PWA farmers.

Serving on the jury were: Harry Harris, David Hudson, Calvin Cross, Irene Hicks, Eunice Needre, Catherine Nash, Pauline Wetzler, Ellen Daniels, and Frances Carter.

Mr. Oser was represented by Jimmy Scott while Herbert Smith served as prosecuting attorney.

The witnesses for the defense were: Sam Ward, Frances Rice, and Violet Garrett; while the state's star witnesses were Alma Ruben, Vivian Powell, and Jack Blair.

Presiding over the case was Judge Albert Dimmock.

Half Witticisms

A rush, a scramble,
A tackle—a fall.
Six wounded—three senseless,
Only four dead—that's football.

Stranger: "Do you know a man around here with one leg named Jones?"

Slick: "What is the other leg named?"

Frosh: "What course are you going to graduate in?"

Senior: "Why, in the course of time."

Pa: (As son creeps into bed)
"Son, what time is it?"

Son: "One o'clock (clock strikes four)."

Pa: "My how that clock stutters."

"What is the most nervous thing in the world next to a girl?"

"Me next to a girl."

Dude rancher: "I always wanted to live the life of a cowboy like I saw in the movies."

Cowboy: "So have I."

"What is the most useful animal in the world?"

"A chicken, you can eat it before it's born and after it's dead."

STILL

I woke to look upon a face
Silent, white, and cold.
The agony that I felt then
Can never half be told.
We'd lived together but a year,
It seem'd too soon to see
Those gentle hands outstretched and still,
That worked so much for me.
My wakening thoughts had been of one

Who now to sleep had dropped.
'Twas hard to realize just then
That my dollar watch had stopped.

A man was getting shaved in a small town barber shop. The barber nicked his man several times. To stop the bleeding he placed a small bit of paper on the cuts. When the process of shaving (?) was completed, the victim handed the barber a $1.00 bill, and remarked. "Keep the change, it's a privilege to be shaved by a man as versatile as you. Why you're a barber, butcher, and paper-hanger all in one!"

Chauffeur: The car is at the door.

Master: Yes, I hear it knocking.
